

PEDRO STOICHITA 2020

“SOCIAL INTERACTION AND SOCIAL ABILITIES: NORMS, SCRIPTS, AND INJUSTICES”

Organisers: Leda Berio, Gen Eickers, Benedict Kenyah-Dampthey, Sophie Kikkert, Kristina Musholt, Albert Newen

When: 22 November - 24 November 2023

Where: Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Luisenstraße 56, Haus 1, 10117 Berlin, R. 122

Programme

Wednesday, 22 November 2023

09:45	Welcome	12:00	Lunch Break
10:00	What is a Social Interaction? Tobias Schlicht (Ruhr-Universität Bochum)	13:30	Dehumanization Trouble: Social Affordances and Discriminatory Social Interactions Benedict Kenyah-Dampthey (Universität Düsseldorf)
11:00	Break	14:30	Break
11:30	Pattern Finding and Pattern Making Tad Zawidzki (George Washington University)	15:00	Epistemic Injustice and Social Construction Esa Díaz-Léon (Universitat de Barcelona)
12:30	Lunch Break	16:00	Break
14:00	Why is Social Change So Annoying? Affective Friction and Moral Progress Evan Westra and Dan Kelly (Purdue University)	16:30	Scripts and Stereotypes Samia Hesni (Boston University)
15:00	Break
15:30	Scripts and Injustice in Social Interaction Gen Eickers (Universität Bayreuth)
16:30	Break
17:00	Stereotypes as Scripts Shannon Spaulding (Oklahoma State University)

Friday, 24 November 2023

		09:30	Social Sensitivity, Regularities and Norms in humans and nonhuman animals Albert Newen (Ruhr-Universität Bochum)
		10:30	Break
		11:00	Re-situating cognition: A study case in self-control Miguel Segundo Ortín (Universidad de Murcia)
		12:00	Lunch Break
09:30	How Norms Guide our Actions: On the Relationship Between Social Norms, Affordances and Scripts Leda Berio (Ruhr-Universität Bochum) and Kristina Musholt (Universität Leipzig)	13:30	Ontically Unjust (In)ability Ascriptions Sophie Kikkert (Human Abilities)
10:30	Break	14:30	Break
11:00	Naturalizing Psychopathology? Measuring Social Interactions to Inform Real-world Psychiatry Leonhard Schilbach (LVR-Klinikum Düsseldorf)	15:00	Final Discussion

Thursday 23 November 2023

